Art Unit: 2858

1. The title of the invention is not descriptive. A new title is required that is clearly indicative of the invention to which the claims are directed.
2. Applicant's election without traverse of species of figure # 8 in Paper No. 4 is acknowledged.
3. Claim 5 is withdrawn from further consideration pursuant to 37 CFR 1.142(b) as being drawn to a nonelected species of figure # 7, there being no allowable generic or linking claim. Election was made without traverse in Paper No. 4.
4. Claims 1-4 and 6-16 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

In claim 1, it is unclear what "ceramic material" represents. In claim 3, it is unclear what "homogenous material" represents. In claim 10, it is unclear what "inorganic ceramic material" represents. In claims 13 -16, it is unclear what "mixtures and derivatives" represent. The dependent claims not specifically address share the same indefiniteness as they depend from rejected base claims.

5. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Art Unit: 2858

6. Claims 1-4,6,10-16 (insofar as understood) are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Tada et al (Pat # 4,961,052).

As to claims 1-4,6,10-16 Tada et al disclose a probing plate for wafer testing having a plate (10) made of glass, ceramic or alumina, a conductor (11a) with a receiving end for connecting to a semiconductor device (1) and a terminal end for connecting to an electrical apparatus (5,7,6).

7. Claims 1 and 8-9 (insofar as understood) are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Wood et al (Pat # 5,519,332).

As to claim 1, Wood et al disclose an interconnect as shown in figure # 6A having a substrate (84), and an electrical conductor layer (96) with a receiving end for connecting to a semiconductor device (14) and a terminal end for connecting to an electrical apparatus. As to claims 8-9, the interconnect of Wood et al also includes an insulating layer (98) on a portion of the conductor (96).

8. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Art Unit: 2858

9. Claim 7 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Wood et al (Pat # 5,519,332) in view of Huther (Pat # 4,45,314).

Wood et al disclose an interconnect as shown in figure # 6A having a substrate (84), and an electrical conductor layer (96) with a receiving end for connecting to a semiconductor device (14) and a terminal end for connecting to an electrical apparatus. The substrate of Wood et al is not made of Born Nitride. Huther teaches that the insulator made of Boron Nitride is well known in the art. As to claim 7, it would have been well known for one of ordinary skill in the art to make the insulated substrate of Wood et al from Boron Nitride as taught by Huther so that this insulated substrate would have thermally conductive characteristics.

10. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.

Lockwood et al (Pat # 4,697,143) disclose a wafer prober.
